Notes Overview

Notes can be added in several customer related areas of the application including:

- Customers
- Sites
- Systems
- Work Orders

When entering a Note, it should be entered on the entity that is most logical. From example, billing related notes should be saved at the Customer level, whereas system related notes should be saved at the System level.