Payments Overview

There are two basic methods of taking payments from customers:

- EFT
    - Credit Card
    - eCheck
- Customer Check or Cash

The EFT type transactions are automatically processed behind the scenes. When transactions are submitted to the merchant bank for funding, a payment batch is automatically created by the software.

For payments received by check or cash, payment batches are manually created to enter customer payments. More information can be found here.