

System Types Overview

Last Modified on 04/27/2022 9:49 pm EDT

When creating a new System record, the System Type is a required field.

A System Type defines each System that is installed and/or serviced at a customer's site. A System Type could be Intrusion, Fire, CCTV, Access Control or any other type of installed system. The System Type may also be used for reporting purposes.